

Fulbright Campus Timeline

1

APRIL 2025

The official Fulbright application opens on the Fulbright website. The current application is open for applicants now.

JUNE 30, 2025

In order to participate in the campus review process, you must register your intent to apply by the above deadline. The review process includes W&M endorsement of your application, an interview, and feedback.

2

AUGUST 31, 2025

Please note that the W&M campus deadline is earlier than the national deadline. This gives us time to review applications and hold campus interviews. You will be able to go back and edit your application after you receive feedback

3

SEPTEMBER 2025

Applications will be reviewed and campus interviews will take place. During these interviews you will meet with faculty and staff to discuss your application and hold an interview for campus endorsement.

4

OCTOBER 7, 2025

The Fulbright national deadline is due by October 7, 2025 by 5pm EST. Please note that this is a hard deadline and applications will not be accepted after 5pm EST.

5

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT?

Fulbright will review your application and update you about your status. Fulbright will alert applicants if they are semi-finalists and/or finalist. Given the political climate, we are unable to provide time frames at this time.
